

Israeli Medical Association – World Fellowship Conference

Israel, December 11-14, 2012

Call for Submission of Abstracts

This year, the Israeli Medical Association (IMA) is celebrating its 100 year anniversary. As part of the celebrations, we will be holding a 4-day conference from December 11-14, 2012 for both our Israeli and World Fellowship members, which will include celebratory events and scientific lectures. The World Fellowship members are invited to stay for an extra day, for our traditional Shabbat program

The scientific program will include speakers from Israel and around the world, who will present on a wide variety of topics in a series of short presentations in thematic sessions as well as longer, keynote speeches. This will be a great opportunity to network with physicians in Israel as well as from around the world. Physicians are encouraged to participate in this unique conference and submit abstracts for presentations

Conference sessions/topics include

(Tomorrow's medicine (advanced technologies, personalized medicine, e-medicine -

Medical law and ethics, including Jewish perspectives -

Military medicine -

Medicine and the Holocaust -

Women and medicine -

Medical education -

Abstracts will be accepted for oral presentations of 20 minutes, including time for questions and answers, which will run in parallel, theme-based sessions. In order to encourage a broad range of topics and innovative programs, abstracts presented elsewhere are acceptable for submission and presentation

Please submit a structured abstract of approximately 300 to 500 words with presentation outline and presenter background, including title, authors' names and workplaces, CV and contact information. Submissions should be received by July 31, 2012. Abstracts will be reviewed by the IMA – WF Conference Scientific Committee. Receipt of abstract submissions will be acknowledged via e-mail to the submitting author. After the review process is complete, the author will be notified regarding the acceptance or rejection of his/her abstract

Please send your abstract electronically to
